Subject No. 106.

The period for which Muzrai lands are leased out to be raised from 5 years to ten.

Messrs. Narasimhamurti Rao, Chennappa & Chennaboregowda, Mandya Taluk.

Summary of Representation.

The lands belonging to the Muzrai institutions are being given for cultivation on gutta tenure once in five years. As this period is not enough to enable the cultivators to make good the losses likely to be sustained by themselves and to keep the lands in a flourishing condition, it may be ordered that such lands may be given on gutta tenure for ten years at a time.

Note:—Not discussed for want of time.

MISCELLANEOUS.

(Nos. 107 to 138.)
